

Promotion Review Board (PRB) Overview

Updated: May 25, 2004

- Perform before the meeting
 - Iron your uniform with starch.
 - Polish your shoes.
 - Study your memory work with a parent or friend.
 - With confidence, tell your memory work to a parent or friend.
 - Study your current and past Leadership chapters that you have passed—you will be asked questions on this material.
 - Study your current and past AE modules that you have passed—you will be asked questions on this material (does not apply for Basics).

- During the PRB
 1. Knock once on the door to the Cadet Staff Trailer – if told to “Stand By”, then wait for 30 seconds and knock again. Repeat until you are told to “Enter”.
 2. Walk to the candidate chair in a military manner and report: “Cadet [grade] [last name] reporting as ordered” while saluting.
 3. There will be a uniform inspection.
 4. Speak with confidence when you are asked a question.
 5. You will be asked to say the memory work, for example, a PRB member may ask for the Honor Code and you respond with: “Sir/Sergeant the Honor code is as follows...”
 6. You will be asked questions from the appropriate Leadership Chapters and AE modules.
 7. You will be asked general questions about what it means to be a cadet.
 8. The president of the PRB will tell you: “That will be all”, to which you reply “Thank you Sir/Sergeant will that be all” while saluting, to which the president of the PRB will respond “That will be all” while returning the salute.
 9. You will exit the door in a military fashion and wait outside the door to be recalled.
 10. When you are recalled, then you will follow steps 1 and 2 above.
 11. After the Form 50 has been reviewed, you will follow step 8 and return to the Cadet trailer.